CIRCUIT COURT CONVENED LAST MONDAY

Special Judge L. P. Little, of Owensboro, Presiding--Grand and Petit Jury Impannelled--Very Important Session.

JUDGE Cordon ILL AT HIS HOME IN MADISONVILLE

Circuit Court convened Monday with Judge L. P. Little, of Owensboro, presiding.

The forenoon was consumed in organization and the impanneling and instructing the grand jury. The afternoon was devoted to the reading of the docket and the setting of the cases.

Judge Little did not devote much time in his instructions to the grand jury and yet what he said was plain and to the point. Particular emphasis was placed on the carrying concealed weapons. He said, in most cases where the violators were fined and imprisoned they were usually given the lowest instead of the highest fine.

The grand jury is composed of twelve good men. They are:

C. R. Newcom, foreman, Jim McConnell, H. C. Farmer, Albert Lucas, J. R. Marvel, C. M. Clift, George L. Rankin, Jim Manus, W. H. Teer, S. M. Weldon, Claude Gill and Ira Bradburn.

The following are the petty jury: T. A. Rankin, Cecil Rankin, Ellis Ralston, H. O. Hill, Harris R. Austin, Geo. W. Davis, H. S. Driver, W. B. Binkley, W. J. McChesney, A. J. Pickens, W. E. Minner, R. L. Nickols, Jim Pickens, J. C. Alexander, R. H. Kemp, W. I. I.

Denton-Mitchell.

Mr Leonard Mitchell and Miss Lessie Denton were married on Monday evening at 2 o'clock in the parlors of the Gill House, by Rev. J. B. Adams.

Both of the contracting parties are prominent young people of Hampton, Livingston county. They were a handsome couple who we feel, took the sacred vows with the determination to live up to them.

Those witnessing the beautiful ceremony were: T. H. Cochran, N. E. Calmes, E. J. Hayward, Sam Guggenheim and Mr. and Mrs. Gill. May they live a long, prosperous and happy life.

Notwithstanding the down-pour of rain there were a good many people in town. The bar was well represented and all present, including John L. Grayot, of Smithland, our re-elected Commonwealth's Attorney.

The docket is larger this term than for some time and will likely take the entire term to dispose of it. The criminal part of it, however, is very light.

The absence of Judge Gordon on account of sickness is deplored by all, but the next term it is hoped he will be sufficiently recovered to preside. He has many friends here who are sincerely anxious for his early recovery, who will extend to him an old time welcome when he comes to Marion again.

The attorneys present were:—James & James, Blue & Nunn, Moore & Moore, Hon. W. J. Deboe, A. C. Moore, Carl Henderson, J. G. Rochester, W. A. Blackburn, J. B. Kevil, R. J. Moore, A. U. Davidson and Hon. Jno. L. Grayot. Visiting attorney: were Clay & Clay, of Henderson.

A Glorious Revival.

On Tuesday night, Oct. 19th, Rev. W. R. Gibbs, pastor of Repton church, preached the first sermon of the grandest revival meeting in the history of the church.

On Saturday following, Rev. T. N. Martin, of Sullivan, Ky., came to his assistance; when the services began day and night. For two weeks the weather was ideal, and notwithstanding the large crowds that gathered every night, the best of order was maintained throughout the meeting. These Brethren did fervent faithful work; and through the foolishness of preaching, many sought the Lord.

Miss Edna Foster, organist, with the appreciative help of others, rendered sweet music. The singing was all that could be desired. The saints seemingly sang with the spirit

AMOUS PEOPLE
BY FANNIE M. LOTHROP

IDA M. TARRELL
Remarkable Historian and Writer

One of the greatest living historians is a woman—Ida M. Tarbell, who evolved from a chaos of facts and figures a clear, orderly, concise and consecutive history of, perhaps, the greatest business organization in the world. With the sure instinct of the true historian, she gathered the vital facts in the rise of this great institution and presented them in their true relation with conscientious loyalty to truth, with courage in stating boldly her findings, and with an absence of prejudice that is rare, indeed, in writing on such a theme. The work is more than a mere history of an industry; it is the biography of a genius in organization and the vivification of a typical Trust combined in one masterly work. "The History of the Standard Oil Company." This is but one of the splendid pieces of literature to the credit of Miss Tarbell.

Miss Tarbell was born and brought up in the oil regions of Erie county, Pennsylvania, and after graduating from Allegheny College, at Meadville, had to face the problem of self-support. After a period of teaching in Ohio, she assumed the position of associate editor of "The Chautauquan," and later became its managing editor. She saw that editorial work and original creation cannot properly be driven abroad, so gently cutting the reins of editorial duties, went to Paris to study the French method of historical research. Here for three years, while

An article on Alphonse, who carried out the improvements in beautifying Paris, led to an interview with S. S. McClure, who was so charmed with her work that he rushed in for a five minute's talk in her little den on the fifth floor of the house where she lived; he stayed two hours, and, as Miss Tarbell says, they both talked at once all the time. A cable invitation for her to write a history of Napoleon brought her back to America shortly after, and her literary success really began.

Her splendid life of Lincoln represented five solid years in the collection of material, and she went from Kentucky to Indiana, from there to Illinois, and then to Washington, interviewing men who had known him, digging into files of old newspapers, records, reports and documents, and visiting out-of-the-way places that might furnish a single grain of new illumination on his character or life-work. It was the same spirit of conscientious care in details that made her travel from New York to Cleveland merely to see for a few moments John D. Rockefeller as he appeared in a Sunday School environment. Miss Tarbell's latest work on the "Tariff in Our Times" is a line of effort that seems destined to wield a great influence on the future history of our nation.

and the understanding also. Prayers were earnest and full of faith. Other demonstrations worked harmoniously with the Baptist, and the Altar would be full of penitents pleading for mercy. It certainly was, as was frequently sung "Old time religion."

A pentecostal shower. Some were like the great Apostle Paul, "whether in the body or out of the body, I can not tell." Many shouted and praised God. Some had become careless and indifferent, had the joys of salvation restored. There were at least sixteen happily converted.

Sixteen joined the church, however only six of this number professed during the meeting. No writer has the power of thought or words to express the result of a good meeting.

When the worth of a soul and the power of influence are considered, only eternity can tell. For, "one can chase a thousand and two put ten thousand to flight."

The third Sunday of the meeting, Nov. 7th, at 10 o'clock, in the presence of a large concourse of people, the pastor still desirous of doing his Master's will, and carrying out his command, regardless of failing eyesight, buried eleven beneath the liquid wave to rise to walk in newness of life.

There were thoughts of breaking the meeting that night. How could they? when the house was packed to over-flowing and the Altar full of sinners crying for mercy. It was agreed to give the following Monday to rest and get ready for a further waiting before the Lord. The weather became inclement. Monday night was rainy; nevertheless a good service was rendered by a faithful few. A glorious service on Tuesday. The weather still inclement, nights dark, it was agreed to close the meeting. On Tuesday night, three weeks from the night it began, services ceased; but the writer trusts the revival will continue in the hearts of God's people, until He says, "It's enough, come up higher." The day following, at 10 o'clock, at the same place, five were baptized. May every soul that attended these services meet around the great white throne to part no more, is the desire of a lover of Jesus.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday night at Repton church. Everybody cordially invited.

Meeting of The Musical Club.

The Musical Club was very delightfully entertained by Mrs. Levi Cook, Saturday afternoon, Nov. 13th.

The subject for discussion was the life of Nevin and the following program was rendered.

Instrumental solo: "Narsissus"—Mrs. W. O. Tucker.

Instrumental solo: "Alb"—Miss Allie Mae Yates.

Vocal duet: "Garden of Dreams"—Misses Driskill and Sutherland.

Instrumental solo: "Good Night"—Miss Isa Price.

"Life of Nevin"—Mrs. W. V. Haynes.

Miss Willett very interestingly told the myth of "Narcissus."

A contest of the different composers added great interest to the program.

Delicious refreshments of cream and cake were served. And the decorations of pink and white crysanthemums were very beautiful.

Besides the members of the Club, the following visitors were present: Mesdames J. H. Orme, W. A. Blackburn, C. E. Weldon, Alvin Stephens, W. D. Baird, Jack Lawson, Misses Margaret Moore, Gray, Barnes, Carter, Bernice Driskill.

The afternoon was very enjoyable to all present and Mrs. Cook proved herself a charming hostess.

The Club's next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Nellie Sutherland Saturday afternoon, Dec. 1.

385 MINERS PERISH IN CHERRY, ILL.

Among the Missing are Many Americans--Majority are Foreign Born

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 15.—Many people gathered at Cherry Monday morning to witness the early morning efforts to rescue the miners imprisoned in the coal mine as a result of Saturday evening's fire.

The officials of the mine, haggard and nervous, were still the hardest working men of the rescuers and none of them had stopped for sleep since the accident happened.

A rescuing party that came up about noon Monday stated that there was little chance of the rescuing any of the miners.

They found no bodies near the entrance.

There are numerous caverns and the mine is in bad shape.

Everything seems to be against the miners and there is practically no oxygen in the mine so that there is little chance that many of the miners have survived.

The list of the missing men was compiled yesterday in the offices of the mining company and it reached a total of 385, including the dead bodies taken from the burning cages Saturday afternoon. One hundred and seventy men who entered the mines Saturday morning have been accounted for. The company had scores of tracers at work yesterday rounding up the employees and at nightfall the officials admitted that the number of men imprisoned was greater than at first believed to be possible.

Among the missing are many Americans who have lived for years and reared their families in Illinois. Though a majority of the miners are foreign born, yet all had their homes here or in surrounding towns.

Cherry today was the mecca for thousands of persons and before noon the St. Paul mine was surrounded by an almost uncontrollable mob. A number of deputies were sworn in to handle the crowd. Trains from nearby towns were run into the stricken village. Each train was packed, some attracted by curiosity and others by a craving for news from some loved one. Fathers whose sons were in the mines wept as others escorted them from the entrances to the shafts where preparations were being made with all possible haste to rescue them if possible.

The characters in the play are: Jack Merewether, newly married, J. M. Hawes; Capt. Trentham, in pursuit of wife, J. P. King; Marion Merewether, Jack's wife, Miss Lena Holtzclaw; Mrs. Constance Cameron, running away from an unknown lover, Miss Willett. Miss Pearl Bird Lahman has spent two years abroad with one of the best masters and also has recommendations from noted Chicago musicians and press notes from many large cities.

He is in great demand, and it is only by a fortunate chance that we are able to get him on the above date. Having heard this talented speaker twice and knowing him personally, the writer does not hesitate to say that he is certain to please the Marion people beyond measure. Subject for the lecture will be announced later. Admission 25 and 50 cents.

HOW CARNEGIE AND HILL MADE MILLIONS.

From Manufacturers' Record November Fourth, 1909.

Andrew Carnegie and James J. Hill have probably made more money by skillful advertising than any other men in America. In the line of shrewd advertising, as well as in knowing how to accumulate millions, they are experts of the highest order. For years Mr. Carnegie kept himself and the Carnegie Company before the public so effectually that the American people believed that by all odds his concern was far and away the greatest in the country. Very few knew that at the time the Steel Corporation was formed another iron and steel company in Pittsburgh had an output almost as great as Carnegie's. The world knew all about the Carnegie Company, but it didn't know others.

Carnegie capitalized his reputation and sold the Steel Corporation for two or three hundred million dollars more than he could have had before years known and practiced the art of the widest possible publicity. The Steel Corporation's issue of securities, based in part on the ownership of the Carnegie plant, had less value than many have supposed. It was merely the turning into securities of the tremendous asset of the world-wide reputation of the Carnegie Company, and Mr. Carnegie thus capitalized and sold for some hundreds of millions the publicity work which he had carried on for years. This was equaled only by Mr. James J. Hill when he was getting ready to sell his iron-ore properties in the Lake region. For several years Mr. Hill never lost an opportunity to keep before the public the increasing value of iron ore and the vast quantity which he owned in the Lake region. There were many suggestions of the fact that these could not be duplicated at any price and that they would be very cheap at a dollar a ton in the ground, as they might furnish the basis for some independent steel company. Nobody knew much about these properties, but the public finally came to believe that they were so immensely valuable that they were almost necessary to the existence of the Steel Corpora-such widespread knowledge about any section or any business is one of its assets often more important than the natural resources of the country or the immediate direct results that follow a broad advertising campaign.

Judge Nunn is finishing his first term on the bench. He was here to night and was called on by many Democrats.

Paducah, Ky., Nov. 11.—Chairman Henry Lawrence today called a meeting of the First Congressional District Democratic Committee to be held in Paducah, December 1, for the purpose of fixing the time, manner and place of nominating a candidate for Congress. The incumbent, Ollie M. James, of Marion, will have no opposition. The election does not take place until next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Conditt were guests of J. C. Minner and family, of Chapel Hill, Saturday night and attended church Sunday.

Several young people attended the musical at E. J. Corley's Saturday night and all report a good time.

Miss Ruth Hill is the champion huntress of the whole country round. Last Sunday afternoon while returning from Sunday school she captured the largest red fox that has ever been seen in this locality. The monster measured 4 feet from tip to tip and weighed 35 pounds and 7 ounces. Miss Ruth is proud of her "catch" and keeps him as a curiosity.

Cures Dyspepsia; Trial Is Free

It is a popular mistake that only wealthy people who eat rich and highly-spiced foods suffer from dyspepsia, or, as it is also known, indigestion. The laborer in the street, the worker in the field also finds himself a victim of this disorder. Among the very greatest sufferers from it are women.

Dyspepsia is indicated by a constant feeling of heaviness, by loss of appetite and trouble sleeping, by sour stomach and distress after eating, by bad complexion and listless eyes.

There is no surer and speedier cure for this trouble than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint. It has given relief to many, successfully for twenty years. This great herb laxative compound cured Capt. C. of Buffalo, La., of dyspepsia and sour stomach that he had had for forty years, or until the lucky day that he heard of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint, cured Joel Adams, of Monroe, La., after suffering continuously for sixteen months. These are only a few of the many. But it is not expensive to be cured with this grand remedy, as it can be bought at any druggist in a quart or $1.

Your very neighbors are probably lifelong users of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Peppermint, but if you want to know without expense what it will do for you personally, send your name to Dr. Caldwell and he will be glad to send you a free trial bottle. He is anxious for you to have you make a test of his remedy.

Thousands of families everywhere keep it in the house against such an emergency as constipation, sour stomach, indigestion, biliousness, dyspepsia, heartburn, grippe, liver, etc. You may come on a member of the family any day. It is pleasant to the taste, acts gently and does not gripe. It is the great children's laxative tonic.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

GOOD MAN FOR STATE AUDITOR

Many of the leading, clean handed business men, as well as politicians, of the First and Second congressional Districts, are mentioning the name of James K. Waller of Morganfield as probably the strongest man the Democrats could possibly name for State Auditor in 1911.

Mr. Waller has at no time even intimated that he would seek the nomination, but his friends, who have known and admired him from boyhood, are sure to ask him and in such numbers that he can hardly refuse.

Mr. Waller's life is an open book. From his early boyhood no one ever heard of his doing anything that would bring reproach upon himself or his friends or the blush of shame upon the cheek of his fond mother. When but three years old he was deprived of a father's love and care. But he had a great and good mother, whose devotion and Christian training brought her a rich reward, for at the age of 14 years he joined the Methodist church, from which time, 34 years ago, he has lived a Christian life above reproach, obeying the commandments of his church and contributing to its needs more than any one else.

Mr. Waller at an unusually early age applied himself diligently to his studies so that at the age of 20 he graduated from Vanderbilt with high honors. Launching at once into the great busy world by applying himself industriously to business and adhering strictly to the Christian training of his good mother, has climbed steadily to the top, now one of the wealthiest men in the richest county in Kentucky and for a number of years recognized leader in the financial world.

Mr. Waller is widely known throughout this end of the state and with fewer enemies than any man of our acquaintance. Should he be persuaded to make the race for the nomination he will make the people his friends as he meets them, as he is one of the most courteous gentlemen we ever met. All Mr. Waller will need to make friends will be to visit the various towns of the state.

He is now president of the People's Bank and Trust Company of Morganfield, which is one of the strongest banking institutions in this end of the state. He is a safe business man, clear-headed, accomplished and with the backbone to do what is right, let it hurt who it may. He has proven one of the greatest benefactors to his town and Union county and should he be made auditor of the state, the people will find no chance for complaint.

Rev. Oakley assisted Rev. J. L. Price, of Providence, in a revival meeting at Fredonia, beginning the 8th and closing the 16th. There

The big ditch known as the Quirey ditch, extending from the mouth of Eagle creek to the Cox bridge above Sturgis, a distance of twelve miles, established at a cost of a little less than $30,000, has been deemed incapacitated to handle the volume of water in flood time and after due deliberation on the part of the land owners, the ditch will be widened, deepened and lengthened, at an additional expense of a little less than $60,000. It is claimed the damage to the crops from overflows the past season along its course would easily have paid this additional assessment. There are some who feel to have been unduly taxed, and it is likely they have been, but everything will be righted and all will move off smoothly. This ditch has already made a wonderful revenue for Union county, but not the half it will make. The new ditch will be made thirty feet wide and many times deeper than the present one. There are more than one hundred land-owners along its route.

Big Turnip.

G. W. Arfack, the turnip man, brought to our office yesterday a specimen of his crop. The turnip measured 12 inches in length and 15 inches in circumference. It was of the seven-top variety and it was estimated by the Press force that, if properly cooked with a supply of bacon, salt, etc., it would make a square meal for a family of seven turnip-hungry people.

TAFT TAKES NOTICE OF THANKSGIVING

"The season of the year has returned when, in accordance with the reverent custom established by our forefathers, the people of the United States are wont to meet in their house you shall be put in the penitentiary. Now what would be the answer of these men? Certainly they would admit that the laws are just and good. But can we say these laws were enacted for this class of men? Not at all. Bro. Smart might say good men commit crimes and sin. If you mean spiritually good men I deny it. Men who do such things have a flaw somewhere and are not good. They have failed to get to get a good weld and, like a piece of iron when put to the test, they pull apart, break. When a man is welded into Christ and Christ into him, the gates of "hell—the devil and the Methodist preachers—can not pull them apart.

The Bible is literally full of positive assertions that the truly regenerated soul will be saved. If you have doubts, turn to John 4: 13, 14, 5: 24; 1 Cor. 10: 13; John 10: 11; Rom. 8: 35-39, and a hundred more if necessary. We have positive proof from the Bible that many of the righteous are in heaven, and many who have been partially weld ed, as they believe or want to believe, are in hell. But no man can say, on the authority of the Bible, that a truly regenerated person ever went to hell.

I have written this article, Bro. Smart, trusting your fears may be mollified and that we, as Christians, may cease to hold the devil between us and God's word.

"Hello, Billy, where are you going to?"

"To the party."

"What kind of a party, Bill?"

"A card party. I believe the gurls call it a progressive party."

"What do they do, Bill?"

"They play cards and uker."

"How long do you stay, Billy?"

"Perty nearly all night."

"Do you like it?"

"You bet. There's lots of fun."

"How do they have fun, Billy?"

"Well, you see, they cheat."

"How do they cheat?"

"Well, sometimes they git more kards than they orto have, and the gurls will stick the kards under the boys' coat, and the boys try to do just like the gurls, and it tickles me nearly to death. Oh, I'd go every night if there were more nights."

"Say, Billy, ain't you afraid the Bad Man will get you?"

"No, sir, he likes it too well himself to let us quit. The gurls say it is a fine sawsley uplift and the boys say the girls know. The boys will go party nearly anywhere the gurls go, and when the boys like their cigarettes the gurls won't leave 'em. Sometimes we play possum hunting. We git in a wagon and make the possums fly and when the possums is all scared in their wholes, then we take lunch and go home and eat possum all night."

"A Friend" Aids Bro. Smart's Theological Teachings.

Some men are naturally "Smart." They are not responsible for their "Smart"ness—they were born that way. Their fathers before them were no doubt "Smart." Some of them, of course, may be a little bit "Smart"er than others. However that may be, one of the "Smart"est of that prodigy has worked himself into the columns of a recent issue of the PRESS and by various "Smart" tactics undertakes to prove the soundness of his theological views. He signs it up, "M. C. Smart." "M. C., according to the dictionary, means Member of Congress."

Bro. Smart undertakes to teach that apostasy is the one doctrine taught in the Bible. There are, it is said, in the city of New York 37,000 women who are supporting their husbands—worthless fellows, no good to themselves, their families, their country or to God. These, it is reasonable to presume, are disciples of John Wesley who have fallen from grace. Unlike Jonathan's gourd vine, they have not withered under God's word, but from a false understanding as to what the Bible teaches, they have lost confidence in everything pertaining to this world or the world to come.

Now, is it possible that God, who was able to speak this world into existence, is such a poor old fellow that he is compelled to make five or six trials before he can save a man's soul? It is true the Bible contains scripture in the way of warnings, but are these warnings placed it the Bible to teach that a Christian may lose his religion and be lost? We deny it. There are in the church three classes of members, the true Christian, the selfdeceived and the hypocrit. Now if the Bible failed to contain matter adapted to the wants and necessities of these three classes, it woud fail to meet the wants of the church. It must have encouragements, admonitions and threatenings, else the christian could not be developed, the selfdeceived could not be awakened, nor the hypocrit aroused. These warnings etc., must be general, so as to give each class needful help. In Kentucky we have citizens of different kinds, just as we have in the church.

We have members of different classes but the enactments of our civil code are general. Must be so.

The warnings and threatenings are addressed to all citizens alike, telling the penalties for theft, for house burning, etc. They say to the honest man, if you steal you will be punished; and to the upright citizen, if you burn your neighbor's house you shall be put in the penitentiary. Now what would be the answer of these men? Certainly they would admit that the laws are just and good. But can we say these laws were enacted for this class of men? Not at all. Bro. Smart might say good men commit crimes and sin. If you mean spiritually good men I deny it. Men who do such things have a flaw somewhere and are not good. They have failed to get to get a good weld and, like a piece of iron when put to the test, they pull apart, break. When a man is welded into Christ and Christ into him, the gates of "hell—the devil and the Methodist preachers—can not pull them apart.

Stomach Blood and Liver Troubles

Much sickness starts with weak stomach, and consequent poor, impoverished blood. Nervous and pale people lack good, rich, red blood. Their stomachs need invigorating for, after all, a man can be no stronger than his stomach. A remedy that makes the stomach strong and the liver active, makes rich red blood and overcomes and drives out disease-producing bacteria and cures a whole multitude of diseases.

Get rid of your Stomach Weakness and Liver Laziness by taking a course of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—the great Stomach Restorative, Liver Invigorator and Blood Cleanser.

You can't afford to accept any medicine of unknown composition as a substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery," which is a medicine of known composition, having a complete list of ingredients in plain English on its bottle-wrapper, same being attested as correct under oath.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The highest medical authority on foods.

Sir James Crichton Browne, LL.D.—F.R.S. of London, gives the best reasons for eating more Quaker Oats

In an article published in the Youth's Companion of September 23rd, 1909, Dr. Browne, the great medical authority on foods, says, about brain and muscle building—

"There is one kind of food that seems to me of marked value as a food to the brain and to the whole body throughout childhood and adolescence (youth), and that is oatmeal.

"Oats are the most nutritious of all the cereals, being richer in fats, organic phosphorus and lecithins."

"He says oatmeal is gaining ground with the well-to-do of Great Britain. He speaks of it as the mainstay of the Scottish laborer's diet and says it produces a big-boned, well-developed, mentally energetic race.

His experiments prove that good oatmeal such as Quaker Oats not only furnishes the best food for the human being, but eating it strengthens and enlarges the thyroid gland—this gland is intimately connected with the nourishing processes of the body.

In conclusion he says—

"It seems probable therefore that the bulk and brawniness of the Northerners (meaning the Scotch) has been in some measure due to the stimulation of the thyroid gland by oatmeal porridge in childhood."

The Scotch eat Quaker Oats because it is the best of all oatmeals.

Coughs of Children

Especially night coughs. Nature needs a little help to quiet the irritation, control the inflammation, check the progress of the disease. Our advice is—give the children Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Ask your doctor if this is his advice also. He knows best. Do as he says.

We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor.

If you think constipation is of trifling consequence, just ask your doctor. He will disabuse you of that notion in short order. "Correct it, at once!" he will say. Then ask him about Ayer's Pills. A mild liver pill, all vegetable.

HENRY STONE, - Marion, Ky.

MANAGER ELLIOTT ARRIVES FROM LIVERPOOL

Well, Mr. Elliott, the members of the Association are very anxious to learn the details of your mission to Liverpool. You left here on the 13th of September, did you not?

Yes, I left here on the 13th of September.

You were gone just two months then?

About two months—two months lacking five days.

Well, what success did you have in selling tobacco for the Stemming District Association while gone?

I reached Liverpool on the 22nd day of September, and after a few days of getting samples out and ready I called on the dealers or commission merchants only, and found them very reluctant to buy. In some cases men who I visited declined even to go and look at the tobacco, giving as their excuse the following three reasons:

First, owing to the dissensions in the Association, with its principal center in Henderson county in the Taylor-Campbell controversy. These buyers said to me that they had been reliably informed by their friends here that this trouble would wreck the Association, and that they would be able to buy the present crop in the loose state from the growers. I found this proposition so thoroughly impressed on the buyers' mind in England that nothing I could say would change their views. They are decidedly of the opinion that the Stemming District Association's days are numbered, and that they need not reckon in the future with the Association. Of course, I tried to show them that they had magnified the extent of the dissatisfaction, but to no purpose apparently. I might digress here long enough to say that this disturbance disturbing faction, whose money is tied up in this tobacco, for their own preservation should think very carefully before they put into the hands of the buyers the club to beat their brains out. If they are not in the Association from a point of principle, it would be better for them to await the sale of the tobacco that we now have on hand before they create any great disturbance.

When will this rebate be refunded the manufacturers who have paid it? Not until the budget is finally accepted by the House of Lords, and there is a vast difference of opinion in the minds of the people as to what the Lords will do and when, which, of course, throws the manufacturer into a state of doubt and perplexity. I will ask you this question right here, — we have heard here in America that the consumption of tobacco has been materially decreased from the effect of this sixteen cent tax a pound, did you find that the case in England?

Yes, the consumption has been materially affected by this new law. The additional sixteen cents per pound has put the working man's smoking tobacco so high that he has to practice very great economy in his smoking, and deny himself his former full allowance; and it is said that at the rate of decrease in the consumption of tobacco since the budget, the duty will create curtail the use of tobacco in England to the extent of from ten to twelve million pounds per year.

You spoke of a third cause that was an obstacle in the way of sales, tell us in detail that third cause?

I think this is one of the principal reasons which prevented my selling more freely of the tobacco we handled 250 Good Stories.

The Youth's Companion abounds in stirring stories of adventure and heroism. One may describe an escape from accidental peril, another a strange encounter with wild creature—man or beast.

Mr. Elliott, can you think of any thing more that should in the utmost candor be told our members? I know you would not willingly conceal anything from them however discouraging the communication might be?

No, I know of nothing else that would be of interest to the membership. I am at all times ready to give them the best information that I may have, and I think that they need only be patient and loyal to the Association for a while when everything will work out to their great advantage. All good members will know that but for this co-operation through the Association they would have gotten no more, if as much, for the last crop than has been paid them heretofore; and if they will be loyal and true, they have the situation in hand, and are enabled to project their crop by such co-operation.

It is my fixed resolution to fully confide in the members in every emergency, and I know that also to be the policy of the District Committee.

Well, Mr. Elliott, are you in a position to forecast what the Association will do with the 1909 crop?

I am not definitely, having only been at home twenty-four hours.

But since my return the District

Committee has been in session and in mutual consultation. They have had some offers for considerable portions of the 1909 crop, but there is quite a discrepancy between the buyers views as to the price and the views entertained by the Committee;

however, the Committee are wrestling with the problem of what to do with the 1909 crop, and members will be advised as to their decision within the next two weeks.

Money Comes In Bunches

to A. A. Chisholm, of Treadwell, N. Y., now. His reason is well worth reading: "For a long time I suffered from indigestion, torpid liver, constipation, nervousness and general debility," he writes. "I couldn't sleep had no appetite, nor ambition, grew weaker every day in spite of all medical treatment. Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a medicine."
